

Questions for the Standards Section:

1. To be a seating therapist you must have which of the following qualifications?
  - a.) Minimum of five years experience with wheelchairs and seating systems.
  - b.) Be an AADL authorizer
  - c.) Assess a minimum of 24 clients a year.
  - d.) Have completed the Alberta Seating Education Workshop
  - e.) All of the above
  - f.) B and D

2. To be a commercial seating technician you must have which of the following qualifications?
  - a.) Complete the approved manufacturers training program for all the seating products on the AADL Seating Schedule
  - b.) Complete Schedule G and submit to AADL annually
  - c.) Have a minimum of 2 years experience in the assessment of wheelchairs
  - d.) Have completed the Alberta Seating Education Workshop
  - e.) All of the above

3. What is the maximum amount of time for a seating system to be trialled?
  - a.) Five days
  - b.) As long as is needed to ensure a fair trial
  - c.) Two weeks
  - d.) Until the seating therapist feels that a decision can be made

4. The client is responsible for which of the following:
  - a.) Abiding by vendor trial and loan policies
  - b.) Completing 1250 authorization and sending to AADL
  - c.) Mounting seating system to wheelchair
  - d.) Having 2 years experience with seating systems and wheelchairs

5. Both Seating Clinic Therapists must attend the fitting of the seating equipment.
 True
 False

6. The commercial seating technician is required to attend the assessment.
 True
 False

7. The role of the interdisciplinary seating team includes which if the following responsibilities:
  - a.) Provide written instructions on care of seating systems
  - b.) Assessment
  - c.) Recycling seating equipment when appropriate
  - d.) A and B
  - e.) All of the above

Questions for the Client Centered Outcomes Section

8. Why are client centered outcomes the key to the seating process being successful?
- a. To meet regulatory requirements for charting.
  - b. To ensure the client understands the seating team goals.
  - c. The seating team needs to be clear about the outcomes the client expects or wants.
  - d. To ensure all stakeholders understand the seating team goals.
9. Which of the statements below is NOT the purpose of client centered outcomes?
- a. The outcomes must reflect the client's goals in language that the client and team understand.
  - b. Outcomes can be used to measure the success of the intervention.
  - c. Outcomes measure the seating clinic's commitment to excellence.
10. Negotiations are sometimes necessary to convince the client to go with the seating team recommendations.
- True
  - False
11. When writing outcomes, include a baseline condition so AADL will be reminded of the starting point.
- True
  - False
12. The goal of the entire seating process is for the seating team to feel it has met the client's needs of comfort, safety and function.
- True
  - False

Questions for the Seating Interventions Section

13. A client from a distant farming community with kyphosis and uncomfortable buttocks is referred to a Seating Clinic. She has a 4 year old foam cushion and an Invacare 9000XT manual w/c. What should happen next?
- a) Seating Clinic books the client into a commercial seating clinic with the client's preferred vendor.
  - b) Seating Clinic inquires whether the client wants to be seen by telehealth.
  - c) Seating Clinic asks the referring therapist what solutions have already been tried.
14. Telehealth assessments should be for clients needing minimal seating intervention.
- True
  - False
15. A client likely better suited to custom product would be one with
- a) Brain injury, extensor tone, and poor judgment
  - b) Multiple Sclerosis, pronounced rotoscoliosis, and right hip flexion 50 degrees
  - c) Cerebral Palsy, and measurements: hip width 13" and thigh length 15"
  - d) 22" X 20" wheelchair and buttock pressure sore

Questions for the Seating Processes Section

16. What are the four steps in the seating services process?
- a. Referral, Assessment, Equipment recommendations, Discharge.
  - b. Referral, Interview, Mat assessment, Trial of equipment.
  - c. Intake, Review of present equipment needs, Trial, Follow-up.
  - d. Referral, Assessment, Intervention, Evaluation

17. Who initiates a referral to seating clinic?
- a. Client
  - b. Caregiver
  - c. Community therapist
  - d. Physician
  - e. Vendor
  - f. All of the above

Pick from the following list to answer questions 18-23.

- a) Seating Clinic Referral – Form A
- b) Seating Assessment – Form C
- c) Seating Assessment Summary – Form D
- d) Seating Outcomes Evaluation – Form G
- e) Request for Seating Clinic Review – Form J

Which form is used for the following purposes?

18. Documents outcomes and seating plan, and advises AADL which equipment is being scrapped or recycled: _____.
19. Client's measurements of ROM: _____.
20. Lists w/c size and serial number: _____.
21. Vendor choice and client's current weight: _____.
22. Request for Seating Clinic review within one year: _____.
23. 3 month follow-up client satisfaction form: _____.